

Kamaraju Diagnostic Centre, Guntur, Andhra Pradesh, India.

Responsibilities:

- Designed, developed and maintained relational databases
- Monitored and tuned database resources and activities for SQL Server databases
- Work on support tickets, maintenance tasks and assigned projects at discretion of the Reporting Coordinator
- Migrated databases from Oracle and Access to SQL Server
- Identifying issues with the database and resolving them
- Monitored the performance of the database and checked on the execution time
- Involved in system analysis, development, documentation and implementation of the inventory and payroll system
- Transforming requirements into stipulations
- Created daily reports of staff accounts which needed to be notified for adding a memo
- Used BI tools like Tableau to manipulate and summarize data and design dashboards to present information in a visually compelling way
- Provided on call or after hours' support
- Cleaned, analyzed and selected data to achieve goals
- Wrote and reviewed system specifications, including output requirements and flow charts